

MARK MANTEIT
CEO, Phillip Island Nature Park

Mark is a chartered accountant and a former Partner of Ernst and Young. He has experience in a range of different industries including General Manager of a large chicken equipment supplier, GM of Australia's largest dry dock, GM of a large sign company and also a Bio Tech company, CEO of Currumbin Sanctuary on the Gold Coast before his current position as CEO of the Phillip Island Nature Park in Victoria for the last 5 years. The Phillip Island Nature Park operates the world famous Penguin Parade, Koala Conservation Centre, Nobbies, and heritage Churchill Island tourist attractions which receive in excess of 1.057 million international and domestic visitors each year.

His focus and expertise has been in change management and particularly profit improvement.